FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CVR/IT Consulting LLC announces a new Courseware Service

The service, CoursewareExpress®, is now available to qualified training providers.

Raleigh, NC October 19, 2018 – Available immediately, CVR-IT Consulting LLC announces a new source of business training courseware, CoursewareExpress®. The service makes available, to qualified training providers, training materials for numerous courses in Project Management, Business Analysis, and Project Portfolio Management. Each course can be licensed individually for any number of students. For each course, available materials include:

- Instructor slides
- Instructor guide and timing chart
- Printed participant course book
- Course templates for exercises
- Train the Trainer instruction

Optional services include branding and course customization. All courses are designed for either virtual or classroom delivery, and all content is consistent with current practice standards from the PMI® and IIBA®.

CoursewareExpress® allows training providers to expand their course offerings without the need for course development. Courseware is sold by Single Use License (one license per student). Each license includes one complementary printed participant guide. An annual license for unlimited training is also available.

A complete course list is available here. Links on that page provide a detailed description of each course.
