CVR/IT CONSULTING TO PROVIDE PROJECT MANAGEMENT TRAINING THROUGH PROTECH PROFESSIONAL TECHNICAL SERVICES, INC.

Training In Advanced Project Management Techniques Will Be Available For Businesses And Project Management Professionals Beginning August 15, 2008

CVR/IT Consulting LLC, a Raleigh/Durham, NC based Project Management Services provider, announced today that it will provide Project Management curriculum and training services through ProTechTraining, a division of ProTech Professional Technical Services, Inc. ProTechTraining is a Technology and Professional Development training company based in Monroeville, PA. Through this agreement, ProTechTraining obtains the services of highly sought speaker and Project Management trainer Dr. Gary J. Evans, principal of CVR/IT Consulting. Dr. Evans will offer training in project and portfolio management, project management office development, organizational change and other vital business topics.

Mastery of Project Management techniques is fast becoming the most widely sought key to success in many top industries today. Dr. Evans, with over two decades of project management experience, has been helping businesses and business professionals achieve their project and professional goals through advanced project management training and consulting since 2002.

ProTech provides ongoing training to the Fortune 500 leaders in banking, retail, cellular, web technologies, aerospace, computer integration services, insurance, government contracting, and manufacturing. Our government clients include many national agencies, military bases and state and city governments.

Training sessions employing Dr. Evans' curriculum will begin in the fall of 2008.
